W.W.M.C. What Would Mathis Cook?

Chef Mathis uses Wednesday evenings to let his menu become a little more unpredictable; a little more relaxed; a little more fun!

While there are a couple of regular entrees on the menu each week, Mathis concentrates on offering something special for W.W.M.C.

It may be a dish that he is particularly in the mood to make, has been on his mind or suits the season in some specific way.

Each week folks on the Veritas email list look forward to a W.W.M.C. message arriving with news about what they can anticipate Mathis and his team serving up that night.
